MEMBERSHIP TO AIDC LTD

Any Australian resident with a personal or professional interest in documentaries may apply to the AIDC Ltd (AIDC) Board to become a Member. AIDC delegates registered for the upcoming conference who are Australian residents automatically become Members of AIDC.

Membership commences from the date of registration for the upcoming conference and expires on the day prior to the commencement date of the following conference. For example, if you registered for AIDC 2021 your membership expires the day before AIDC 2022 commences. AIDC 2022 will run as a hybrid event with in-person and online sessions from Sunday 6 to Wednesday 9 March, 2022, followed by an international online marketplace on Thursday 10 and Friday 11 March, 2022.

If eligible delegates do not wish to be a member of AIDC they must notify AIDC in writing to aidc@aidc.com.au

For interested Australian residents who are not registering for a conference, membership can be attained by completing a Membership application and direct debit payment of $33 (inc GST). Send the completed application form and proof of payment to: aidc@aidc.com.au. Once processed, a payment receipt and membership confirmation will be sent to you via email.

Members are eligible to:

- stand for election to the AIDC Board*
- vote for the AIDC Board at the Annual General Meeting (AGM)
- participate in the AIDC AGM
- submit entries to the AIDC Awards
- nominate a recipient for the annual Stanley Hawes Award

*Two Members may nominate another Member for election as a Director by lodging a signed nomination together with the written consent of the nominee with the Secretary at least 14 days before the AGM at which the election is to be held.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

Unless the AIDC Board decides otherwise, the AGM is held during the annual conference. Notification of the AGM along with director nomination forms will be distributed by email to Members at least 21 days prior to the AGM.
