2022 STANLEY HAWES AWARD

Nomination Guidelines

Want to nominate someone for the 2022 Stanley Hawes Award? This guide provides you with all the information you need.

AIDC is now seeking nominations for the prestigious Stanley Hawes Award. The $5,000 Stanley Hawes Award is presented annually at the Australian International Documentary Conference (AIDC) to a person who has made an outstanding contribution to the Australian documentary, factual or unscripted screen sector.

STANLEY HAWES AWARD NOMINATION PROCESS

Nominating a candidate for the 2022 Stanley Hawes Awards is simple and free of charge, requiring only a written statement of 200 words. However, you must be a current AIDC member to be eligible to nominate a candidate. A current AIDC member is someone who has registered for AIDC 2021 or AIDC 2022.

Alternatively, you can become a member by visiting AIDC Membership and completing a membership application form, along with payment of a membership fee of $33 (GST inclusive) via direct debit. The completed application form and proof of payment must be sent to: aidc@aidc.com.au Once processed, a payment receipt and membership confirmation will be sent to you via email. (Please note that membership does not grant you access to AIDC 2022)

To nominate someone please complete the 2022 Stanley Hawes Award nomination form.

STANLEY HAWES AWARD JUDGING PROCESS

The award recognises entrepreneurship and vision as reflected by the nominee's body of work or their contribution to the screen sector.

Nominations will be judged against this criteria via secret ballot by the AIDC Board, with the winner invited to present an address to all delegates at AIDC.

Key Dates:

- Opening Date: 9:00 AEDT Thursday 4 November 2021
- Closing Date: 23:59 AEDT Sunday 16 January 2022
- Announcement of the winner: mid-February 2022
